Writing

Dear Principal,

Sorry for interrupting you from your job, but our class has a crucial proposal for you about improving school and making it ~~far~~ better.

Well, the main problem of our school is a small library and lack of books. We want to suggest you to expend a library with possibility of making a reading room for students. Besides, we suppose, that everyone would love to read some interesting and gripping literature and not only Russian's authors. It would be great to have different janers of books in our school, which would be helpful for preparations to exams and also could present us an opportunity to have a good time doing useful activity. Moreover, we would like to ask if you have a chance to prevent for students some new gadgets, such as computers and laptops, so that it would be easier and more enjoyable for us to work, do some projects, look for needed information.

Thank<sup>you</sup> for your attention.

We hope, that our proposal is reasonable
